

Red River Gorge Photo Adventure

Photos copyrighted by John W. Snell

Join us April 21-24, 2014 for a three-day, hands-on, photography workshop

What better place to immerse yourself in breathtaking scenery while learning the finer art of landscape photography than in the spectacular Red River Gorge area?

And who better to teach such a workshop than Mr. John W. Snell, the award-winning Kentucky photographer who has made more than 600 trips to the area, photographing many of the most spectacular sights, and turning them into visual masterpieces!

John W. Snell

Photo by David Coyle

Meet John W. Snell, whose work has appeared in Outdoor Photographer, Popular Photography and Keeneland magazines, TIME books, McGraw-Hill books, as well as numerous local publications. His book, "Red River Gorge, The Eloquent Landscape", a 168-page coffee table book of photographs, was introduced in late 2006 and quickly went into a second printing. Nearly 100 of his photographs grace the pages of "Through the Eyes of Lincoln, A Modern Photographic Journey", which was released in April, 2008.

John's photographs are displayed in hotels, hospitals and other public and private venues throughout the country, and are marketed through galleries, gift shops and art fairs throughout Kentucky. You can check out some of his best shots of the area at <http://www.johnsnellphoto.com/gorge1.html>. Be sure to see all 6 galleries.

His passion for photography, teaching and the Red River Gorge area make him the perfect instructor for this fun learning adventure!

In this 3-day workshop, you will learn:

- Camera controls - Which ones to use and what they do
- Exposure - How to get it right & tell if it's right
- Composition - Making more interesting photos
- Light - How to use it for maximum visual impact
- Sharp photos - Why they're not sharp, and what to do about it
- Your vision - How to "see" better photos
- Equipment - What's in the instructor's bag?
- Birch Hollow & Red River Gorge - What's out there this time of year, and how to find and photograph it

Your $849 fee includes classroom & hands-on instruction on all the listed topics, plus 3 sunrise & 2 sunset photo excursions, personal follow-up critique with improvement tips, PLUS...

- 3 nights lodging at the beautiful Cabins of Birch Hollow (with optional 4th night FREE!, so you can stay an extra day and enjoy the many activities the area has to offer)
- 3 lunches & 2 dinners (you just need to provide your own breakfasts, plus whatever you want during your extra days' stay)
- Free info packet on all the great things the Red River Gorge, Natural Bridge State Park and the Daniel Boone National Forest have to offer

www.CabinsofBirchHollow.com

Contact Judy at Gorge-ous Getaways to secure your spot in this awesome, hands-on workshop held April 21 thru 24, 2014.

This WILL sell out quickly, so CALL NOW!

Call Judy at (270) 558-5327

